Panel Discussion:
Housing Rights and State Constitutions

Consider:
Who benefits? Who is burdened?
Who does not have a voice at the table?
How can policymakers mitigate unintended consequences?

The State Democracy Research Initiative is hosting a panel discussion on “Housing Rights and State Constitutions” on Friday, September 27, from 3:00 PM – 4:15 PM in Room 7200 of the University of Wisconsin Law School. The panel will address the role of state constitutions and institutions in addressing housing shortages, as well as the legal framework surrounding new housing and the rights of unhoused people. Members of the Common Council have been invited to attend, and a possible quorum of the Common Council may exist at this event.
