Golf Madison Parks

Where can you go for accessible and affordable golf in Madison? Look no further than the four convenient City of Madison Golf Courses for a truly unique golfing experience you won't find anywhere else in southern Wisconsin. Whether you are a seasoned golfer or just starting out, the City of Madison Golf Courses are suited for golfers of any level. If you are looking to improve your game, the City of Madison Golf Courses offer the most expansive lesson programming anywhere in Southern Wisconsin, each location is a partner site for The First Tee of South Central Wisconsin. Each course is also a Get Golf Ready partner, catering to various levels of instruction with our newly formed Golf Revolution™ Learning Center, making the City of Madison Golf Courses your most accessible lesson option.

Since 1927, the City of Madison Golf Courses are PGA Professionally managed and committed to accessibility and affordability. At the beginning of the 2015 golf season, Golf Madison Parks introduced its new Loyalty Card and Season Pass making golfing at a City of Madison course even more affordable for anyone who enjoys playing the game. At the beginning of the 2016 season, Golf Madison

Parks began several partnerships with local companies such as Blue Plate Catering, Hyvee, Kollegetown Sports, and many others that are on board with our vision of creating a one-stop-shopping experience for your next golf outing. We will match or better our competitors pricing and overall experience on any golf outing! We guarantee it!

From the historic charm of the 9-hole executive course at Glenway, to the undulated greens and well-bunkered fairways at 9-hole regulation course Monona, the popular and challenging regulation 18 holes at Odana Hills and the well-maintained and highly regarded tournament destination at Madison's only 36-hole regulation facility at Yahara Hills, there is a facility that caters to your golfing needs. No other courses in the area compare to the beautifully expansive, accessible and affordable golf you will find at Golf Madison Parks.

ADA Accessibility

The City of Madison Golf Courses have a specialized ADA mobility cart available for rent. This is a great way for everyone to enjoy the game they love. To reserve and rent this cart, please call the golf course you wish to play 48 hours in advance.

Golf Madison Parks

The City of Madison offers four premier public golf courses perfect for residents, visitors and your next group outing! Check out all four courses for their unique programs and lessons.

Glenway Golf Course 9 HOLE

3747 Speedway Road
(608) 266-4737

Madison's most historic public course opened in 1927. This 9-hole par 32 Executive Course is conveniently nestled on the near west side, close to the University and downtown. Golfers of any age and skill level will enjoy the classic and unique layout with mature tree-lined fairways.

Odana Hills Golf Course 18 HOLE

4635 Odana Road
(608) 266-4724

This popular and challenging west side course is home to numerous leagues, tournaments and events. This par 72 course has been operating since 1956, and continues to attract golfers with its creative layout, historic charm and convenient location just off the Beltline.

Yahara Hills Golf Course 36 HOLE

6701 Hwy 12 & 18 East
(608) 838-3126

Dane County's only 36-hole golf facility, located just off Highway 12 & 18 on Madison's southeast side, offers two championship courses featuring spacious and challenging greens. With 36 holes to play, the facility is a great location for outings, leagues and recreational golfers alike. The full-service clubhouse features specialty burgers, sandwiches, snacks and beverages.

Monona Golf Course 9 HOLE

111 East Dean Avenue
(608) 266-4736

Conveniently located on Madison's east side, this spacious 9-hole course offers challenging features and well-bunkered fairways. The undulating greens, excellent driving range and natural grass tees, along with a full-service clubhouse, provide a perfect golfing location.
