

Statement from the Family:

"Althea Bernstein and her family appreciate the detailed investigative efforts by all involved in this case. Althea's injuries are healing and the support of our community has been invaluable in that regard. We continue to maintain our family privacy and will not be granting interviews at this time."