Robbery Reward Offered by Wisconsin Bankers Association in Partnership with Anchor Bank, M&I

A joint reward of up to $7,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for recent Madison and Middleton area bank robberies is being offered by the Wisconsin Bankers Association (WBA) with the help of Anchor Bank and M&I, a part of the BMO Financial Group.

The suspect enters the bank and passes a note to the teller indicating that he has a weapon.

The suspect was seen leaving in a Silver Toyota Corolla with a sunroof. The license plates have been removed.

The suspect is a white male, late 20s, 5"10", slender build, wearing a hat and sun glasses.

This fund is operated by the Wisconsin Bankers Association. If you have any information about this case or can identify this suspect, please contact Madison area Crime Stoppers on the web at TipSubmit.com or call at 608-266-6014.
